Chiming in...

Perhaps it is already too late.

Perhaps you have already put all your Christmas decorations away, packed the card supplies up and sent your real Christmas tree off to the dunes for environmental reasons. Perhaps you have already done all your travelling and are home now nestled in for a long winter (a mild one).

Perhaps you have already made and perhaps broken your New Year's resolutions. Perhaps it is too late for me to speak of it; perhaps not.

As I get older, I leave the New Year's Eve celebrations at Boston's First Night to my much younger and braver children. As I get older, I fall asleep in the recliner through much of the fanfare of concerts and celebrations around the world. I have not always woken up in time to see the "ball drop". Sometimes, I wake up and realize it is too late.

Can it ever be too late though for celebrating? Though the stores have already put out Valentine's candy (I wonder what it is made of), we do not need to pack away the message of Christmas. It is never too late to celebrate our faith and it is always good to reflect on our past. It is never too late to make resolutions moving forward. In fact, resolutions made later in the month are often those we are ready to stick with. Those who wake up and set their "resolve" daily, are more apt to make reasonable and reachable goals. Each day after all is a New Day and it is never too late.

Most New Year's resolutions have to do with health. I have made those kind of resolutions. I have broken them. This year I wondered about what kind of resolution a church could make together to be more healthy? Perhaps that is impossible, perhaps not.

What can we be "resolved" to do together? This is already a healthy church with a healthy spirit. How can we resolve to be more so? Worship more? Pray for each other, for the church, or for the search? Give even more generously than we already do? Visit the home bound? Send cards? Get involved? Show an extravagant welcome to the strangers who come to us? Each one of these would be admirable resolutions to make. It is evident here that you are following those most resolutely.

For me, I will pray more. I will pray that your year ahead is filled with blessing and health. I will pray that you grow closer to God and to one another, and I will pray for the future. I will pray for the future of each individual but also for this great church. May it be so resolved that we will grow healthier in faith together. AMEN.

CHURCH ELEVATOR

Thank you

We give our gratitude and our thanks to Peter Derbyshire for his work and the whole congregation for their patience!

~IMPORTANT~

If you have a pastoral emergency, and cannot reach Rev. Sue through the office, you may call her at 781-724-9831, or call Deacon Debbie Kelchner at 401-524-2007.

WEATHER ALERT! In case of emergency, decisions about holding church services due to bad weather will be made by the pastor or leadership. Check your local radio station or Channel 10 for cancellations which will be posted no later than Sunday at 7 am. You can also check our website www.ucclcri.org or call the church office and press 6 for messages. If you see on Sunday morning that the weather is bad and church has not been cancelled, please use common sense. We do not want anyone taking risks to attend church. If we lose power, we cannot hold church services.

BOARD AND COMMITTEE NEWS

For more information on any of the following committees, please contact the church office at 635-8472 or email Dawn at dawn@ucc.necoxmail.com

Board of Deacons

Lily Derbyshire, Deacon

The month of December had the Deacons very busy. First up, our telethon! Deacons participated in a member call telethon, reaching out to active and inactive members wishing them a Merry Christmas. We also informed them of various church activities as well as the upcoming printing of the Church directory. The first draft was printed on December 21st with the final draft printing slated for March 1st. Grab your hairbrush and Sunday best (or a Hawaiian shirt from BG Shanklin) and practice your best smiling techniques to prepare for our photo shoots in the coming months.

Coming in 2015, Deacons are looking forward to the addition of 3 new deacons, Kate Schmitt, Rick Smith and Frank DiMauro. Their appointment is subject to confirmation at the Annual meeting on February 8th. We thank Judith Anderson, Charlie Thomas and Karen Corrigan for their time and dedication to the Board of Deacons of the past few years.

The Deacons are also preparing for a variety of church services for the beginning of 2015. Two of which are with Health and Wellness Committee as well as an ecumenical service with St. Andrews By The Sea. Be on the lookout for dates and times regarding the Church directory photos and special Sunday services!

SAVE THE DATES

Buildings & Grounds

Peter Derbyshire, Chair

Now that the elevator challenge is in the rear view mirror, B & G is moving forward in 2015.

In the next few weeks, we will be cleaning out the storage room behind the altar. The space will be fully insulated and plywood applied to the walls. Shelving will be installed in hopes of keeping the room organized. We will also be installing conduits to allow cable access between the storage room and the balcony areas. A secondary benefit of this project will be preventing a pastor popsicle as the altar abuts this very cold space. New exterior doors for the North side of the church have been purchased. We will install them when weather allows.

Steve Flowers of Little Compton should be finishing up the new railings on the curved stairs. It is quite a process bending the steel into the curve. The 20' sections are run through rollers squeezed together until it looks close to the proper radius. Takes a trained eye! Special thanks to Steve's daughter Lauren and niece Keegan Page, whom do more than sing in the Junior Choir, they have been helping out painting the finished rail!

After last year's cold winter and excessive electric bills, we started looking into alternative HVAC controls systems. While no decisions have been made, it looks as though we will be installing a wi-fi based system so it can be monitored and controlled from afar. Ted Merriman has been busy working out the arrangements with Cox to provide internet service to the building.

Finance Committee

Bob Hartnett, Chair

As we begin the new year, Finance would like to remind everyone just how important their financial support is to our Church. Without it we would not have been able to do some of the unexpected repairs that we were faced with in 2014. Thank you! 2015 should prove to have its own challenges as well. If you have not pledged already it is not too late, so please call the office today.

Health & Wellness Ministry / Shawl Ministry

Wendy Merriman

On Sunday, January 18th, the Shawl Ministry will be blessing shawls with your participation in church. Please let Rev. Sue or Pam Church know if anybody needs a shawl.

Health & Wellness invites you to join us at Shawl Ministry. We meet on Sunday mornings in the Ladies' Parlor following Worship service. Please join us for knitting and fellowship. Everyone is welcome, knitters or not. Please remember to browse our bulletin board for and don't forget to check out the library cart!

Each member has defined their particular interest and call. In the weeks ahead we will continue to share news from each part of Health Ministry. Ideas from the congregation are always welcome.

We want to thank Christine Merriman who came to the December Meeting and shared her role as a Holistic Health Coach and BG Shanklin who continued to have the labyrinth up our meditative walking in December.

Bereavement - Judith Anderson
Shawl Ministry - Pam Church

BEREAVEMENT

Judith Anderson

Suffering the loss of a loved one can be a very sad and unsettling experience. You can feel overwhelmed by the business and duties of final arrangements, you may need to be emotionally strong for others, and all the while, your heart is broken as you struggle to adjust to the fact that your loved one is gone.

The cluster of sad emotions can battle for attention making us feel at a total loss of how to function and deal with a new life we never thought would have to be lived. Each day demands a new decision and changes that challenge the soul of our being.

The grieving process is a unique process to each one of us and some of us can sometimes feel the need for some understanding, emotional support or a listening ear. The Health and Wellness Committee is aware of these needs and offers to our church family the embrace of caring as we can offer helpful information and referral to the pastor or a professional grief counselor should someone feel the need. Please contact the church office for further information and may Peace be with you.

Music Committee

*Peter Fallon & Steve Walker
Co-Chairs*

We would like to thank all the musicians who contributed to our Christmas Eve Services: Lily Derbyshire, Megan Kelchner, Mary Eldred, Trumpet, Allison Messier, Alto, Margaret Ziemnicka and Judson Griffin, Violins, and of course our very own Junior Choir and Adult Choir!

Outreach Committee

*Shirley Hardison & Marsha LaPointe
Co-Chairs*

Thank you to everyone who contributed to our holiday baskets and "Giving Tree". It is much appreciated.

Little Compton Food Bank: There is a continuing need to keep the shelves full at the Little Compton Food Bank, located in the Wellness Center at 115 East Main Road, Little Compton. Pick up a grocery bag and a shopping list from the little green wagon on your way out of church this morning. Your donations can be brought to the wagon next Sunday or during church office hours (Tuesday – Friday, 9 a.m. – 3 p.m.). Thank you for helping in this mission to our good neighbors in need. Food Bank hours are 9 a.m. – 10 a.m. every Friday and Saturday.

Search Committee

*Paul Suttell, Chair
Shirley Hardison, Clerk*

The Pastoral Search Committee is very pleased with the number of responses to our Pastoral Posting. The committee continues to meet weekly to review the many Ministerial Profiles (resumes) that have been submitted and continue to come in through the UCC and the other sources where we've posted the position.

The review of a Ministerial Profile requires careful examination of the individual's background and experience, their description of faith and their pastoral style. The committee requests and reviews audio and video versions of each individual's sermons and in some cases entire worship services. We also review the written recommendations by the applicant's peers, associates and congregation members. Each review receives very thorough consideration.

During the month of January, the committee is scheduling personal interviews with several applicants who appear to possess many of the qualities our congregation identified as important. At this time, most of the interviews will be conducted using the new system that has been set up in the church complex. This system will allow us to have a video teleconference with those candidates who are located outside our local area. We will conduct in person interviews with those who are more local. The committee is looking forward to getting to know the applicants on a deeper level.

Sunday School

Heather Helger
Director of Children & Youth

S.S. Faithful

December was busy, as it always is, filled with the anticipation of Christmas and all the wonderful children and youth events that accompany the season. During Sunday School classes, the children learned about the Birth of Jesus through the eyes of the prophet Isaiah. In Children's Church, they encountered the prophet Isaiah, telling his story; including how he became a prophet, what a prophet is and some of the prophecies he had about the coming Messiah. The workshop that followed was a Wheel of Fortune type game featuring the names of Jesus prophesized by Isaiah... Immanuel, Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father and Prince of Peace.

The Christmas Pageant took place on Dec. 21st and was titled, "It Wouldn't Be Christmas Without..." Thanks so much to the families that participated to make it a huge success. It is very obvious that our congregation looks forward to this special service every year, because the congregation was packed with people and I received many compliments afterwards at Coffee Hour.

Also, Thanks so much to the families that participated in the Lighting of the Advent Wreath each Sunday, to the children and youth that participated in the Christmas Eve 5pm Family Service as singers, readers and as part of the live crèche. Someone afterward commented, how much they loved the live baby.

During December, the Sunday School families and some additional members and friends filled Christmas bags with toiletries that were distributed to local families in need. To everyone that contributed, we are grateful of your kind donations!

Sunday School enjoyed a two week break for Christmas and New Year's on Dec. 28th and Jan. 4th. Classes resume this Sunday, Jan. 11th with a Children's Church Service in which children will be introduced to our new January rotation story: Jesus Calms the Storm.

Please mark your calendar for an early evening Shrove Tuesday event on Feb. 17th. (Please note this is school vacation week).

Youth Group

The Youth Group's December meeting was great fun! We had our second annual Christmas party complete with: music, games, an ugly Christmas sweater contest, food, fun and to top it all off a homemade gift exchange. Thanks so much to Aimee McGee and Louise Goodman for providing the food and to Emily Goodman for organizing the games and prizes. This is such a wonderful time of fellowship together.

The next Youth Group meeting is scheduled for this coming Sunday, Jan. 11th. Other upcoming events to note include: a Lazer Gate field trip on Jan. 25th, Super Bowl Grinder Making either Sat. Jan. 31st or Sunday morning Feb. 1st (still TBD) and the Homeless Awareness Sleep-out Saturday Feb. 7th – Sun. Feb. 8th.

Confirmation

The Confirmation group fittingly covered the topic of Jesus in class. We held a more informal Birthday party for Jesus type class, in which the kids played games to learn fact from fiction in the Christmas story followed by a discussion on our faith's wide range of beliefs about Jesus. This was a great follow up class to the wonderful retreat experience the youth had previously this year.

The next Confirmation class will be held on Jan. 18th.

"ONE" PAINTING

Ephesians 4:4-6 talks a lot about one. Create one painting that says it all.

What you need:

- Foam letters or letter stickers
- White painting canvas
- Acrylic paints
- Paintbrush or sponge
- Water

What you do:

1. Place letters on the canvas to spell out the "ones" in Ephesians 4:4-6 (one body, one Spirit, one hope, one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God).
2. Paint over the letters, using various colors.
3. When the paint is dry, peel off the letters to reveal words that explain important Bible truths.
4. If desired, finish by painting some number 1's in any blank spots.

The "one" theme of Ephesians 4:4-6 assures us that we need to be baptized only once. Yet a relationship with God involves approaching him with a humble heart each day.

Church Chuckles

Seen on a church sign: "Weekly church is God's gift. Assembly required."

A little boy was attending his first wedding. After the service, his cousin asked him, "How many women can a man marry?" "Sixteen," the boy responded. His cousin was amazed that he had an answer so quickly. "How do you know that?" he asked. "Easy," the little boy said. "All you have to do is add it up, like the pastor said: four better, four worse, four richer, four poorer."
