Chiming in...

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I want to begin my expressing my heartfelt gratitude for the wonderful celebration of my Installation on April 17th. It was a joy to have so many of you there as I was officially installed as your new Pastor. My heart was so full to have friends, family, colleagues, and congregation all together for that special day. Thank you to all of you for the many ways you participated, attended, planned, rehearsed, sang, played, prayed, or celebrated -- it was a perfect day.

Alex and I are beginning to feel at home here in Little Compton, thanks to the warm welcome we have received from all of you. In these short 8 months, I feel I have gotten to know so many of you - and had the privilege of walking with you through both joys and sorrows. It is an honor to serve this church and it was a joy to formally mark my new ministry here with you on April 17th. I look forward to all the ministries we will do together and the adventures we will have!

In Gratitude,

Rebecca

Board of Deacons

Kate Schmitt, Chair

The Deacons would like to welcome three new members this spring. Cheryl Tamaro, Bill Ryan, and Norm Lofsky have joined the Board of Deacons and are already contributing in many ways to the life of the church. We also welcome back Sally Ann Ledbetter, who stepped up last summer to complete Christine Merriman's term when she moved away. Sally Ann is now serving a full term. You will see them greeting at the front door, helping at the elevator, reading scripture and helping with communion. We are also fortunate to have their thoughtful voices in discussions at our meetings.

As we move forward with our new members, we also want to send a big "Thank you" to the Deacons whose terms expired: Tara Bradley, Debbie Kelchner, Christine Merriman, and BG Shanklin. We are grateful for all their contributions to the life of the Church.

A note from Rev. Rebecca and the Deacons

Several members of our congregation brought to our attention the following letter sent out by the United Church of Christ (our denomination) in support of a statement made by the Episcopal Church just before Holy Week. This is an unprecedented action in which the two denominations joined together in supporting a common statement. The statement is a response to the disconcerting rise in hateful rhetoric in our nation's public discourse. It calls all Christians to remember the guiding principles of our faith -- love of neighbor, especially those on the margins, and the dignity of all people as God's children. We discussed the letters at the Board of Deacons meeting and voted to share them with the congregation for your consideration. It is for each of us to decide prayerfully in our own hearts what it means to live the life of service and love to which Christ calls us. We hope these letters will be food for thought. Please let Rev. Rebecca or Head Deacon Kate Schmitt know if you have interest in further discussion about these letters; we would be happy to set up a time for group conversation if there is interest.

3/17/2016

UCC Conference cover letter:

Jim Antal, Barbara Libby and Kent Siladi, the Conference Ministers from Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Connecticut, respectively, sent out the following message to churches, clergy and lay leaders across the three Conferences today:

Grace and peace to you as we approach Holy Week. Over the decades, this time has been for each of us an opportunity to identify more and more deeply with the passion of our Lord Jesus and its claim on our lives and our opportunities for witness.

As all of us gather together in worship on Palm-Passion Sunday, it's also a time to find solidarity in community.

On March 16, we joined the 38 UCC Conference Ministers and together, we joined our counterparts in the Episcopal Church (the House of Bishops) by unanimously signing on to a statement they released March 15, 2016. This unprecedented action -- the leaders of our two denominations joining together - is in response to the unprecedented political climate in our country as the presidential primary season continues.

You can read our statement below. You can also find it in this story on UCC.org.

Some of you will be moved to read it aloud as part of your announcements on Sunday.

Some of you will make room for this in your bulletins. Some of you will forward this email to the members of your congregations. However you are moved to share this word to the church, we are grateful for you, your ministry, and the witness we are called to bear together.

Faithfully,

Jim Antal, Minister and President, Massachusetts Conference United Church of Christ

Barbara Libby, Conference Minister, Rhode Island Conference United Church of Christ

Kent Siladi, Conference Minister, Connecticut Conference United Church of Christ

Original Letter from the Episcopal Bishops:

A Word to the Church

Holy Week 2016

From the House of Bishops of The Episcopal Church and co-signed by the Council of Conference Ministers of the United Church of Christ

We reject the idolatrous notion that we can ensure the safety of some by sacrificing the hopes of others.

On Good Friday the ruling political forces of the day tortured and executed an innocent man. They sacrificed the weak and the blameless to protect their own status and power. On the third day Jesus was raised from the dead, revealing not only their injustice but also unmasking the lie that might makes right. In a country still living under the shadow of the lynching tree, we are troubled by the violent forces being released by this season's political rhetoric. Americans are turning against their neighbors, particularly those on the margins of society. They seek to secure their own safety and security at the expense of others. There is legitimate reason to fear where this rhetoric and the actions arising from it might take us.

In this moment, we resemble God's children wandering in the wilderness. We, like they, are struggling to find our way. They turned from following God and worshiped a golden calf constructed from their own wealth. The current rhetoric is leading us to construct a modern false idol out of power and privilege. We reject the idolatrous notion that we can ensure the safety of some by sacrificing the hopes of others. No matter where we fall on the political spectrum, we must respect the dignity of every human being and we must seek the common good above all else.

We call for prayer for our country that a spirit of reconciliation will prevail and we will not betray our true selves.

Buildings & Grounds

Peter Derbyshire, Chair

In November of 2015 we contracted to have the insulation of the sanctuary attic upgraded. This was a long overdue project which we hoped to help us save money on our growing electric bills.

The first step was to remove all the existing fiberglass insulation and generally clean up the space. Then the roof was sprayed with .8 lb. foam to a thickness of 8 1/2" resulting in R-38. The gable end and belfry were sprayed to achieve R-20. All this was completed by early December. At the end of January, we compared our electrical use to the previous January.

Jan 2015 we used 11,120 Kwh. Total cost of $2,070.72. Billed at .187 cents per Kwh.

Jan 2016 we used 5,520 Kwh. Total cost of $957.88. Billed at .173 cents per Kwh.

There were 1180 heating degree days in Jan 2015. We used 9.4237 Kwh per degree day.

There were 1011 heating degree days in Jan 2016. We used 5.4599 Kwh per degree day.

By doing some not so fancy math, it appears that we achieved a whopping 42.5% savings when adjusted by heating degree days! If this savings holds thru the year (and I do not see why it would not) we will recover our investment in less than 6 years. Yahoo!!!

Wi-Fi was installed in the Church in January. There is one secured and one open channel. Amongst other possibilities, it allowed us to install NEST thermostats to control temperatures. Dawn has control of the schedule from her computer. When an event is booked, she sets the temp in the program for start and finish times. The actual thermostats in the building are soon to be "locked". (At present, I can override from my cell phone should the need arise. We are still figuring out how best to handle this day to day.)

This is just the beginning of our effort to reduce our operating expenses. We will look for other projects as finances allow. Saving energy is expensive in older buildings!

While crawling down from the steeple, during the insulation process, it was noticed that shingles were missing from the belfry roof. We could see bare wood. A quick call to the roofer (Daignault Construction) and we now have a new belfry roof! A lot of sheathing had to be replaced as it appears that it had been leaking for some time. I had to go up there to discuss flashing details, sure glad I do not spend too much time on roofs anymore! It's a long way to the top of a 40 foot ladder!!!

A plea to all! The Church and office have been found unlocked after hours on numerous occasions. If you are the last one out, please check that the doors are securely shut and locked!

Finance Committee

Bob Hartnett, Chair

With the increase in people attending on Sundays to see and learn more about our lovely Church we are beginning to see positive changes in pledges and giving on a weekly basis. Thank you everyone for your generosity, it is a vital part of having a healthy place of worship.

B&G took the time last month to join our meeting to keep both committees updated and plan for future building needs and costs associated with maintaining our properties. Throughout the year Finance will be inviting other committees to discuss ideas and any possible changes that make sense.

We are grateful to have such a dedicated Congregation. Keep up the good work everyone! It does make a difference.

May is Mental Health Month

Below is a small piece of an article from Psychology Today.

Mental Health & Stigma
There are still attitudes within most societies that view symptoms of psychopathology as threatening and uncomfortable, and these attitudes frequently foster stigma and discrimination towards people with mental health problems. Such reactions are common when people are brave enough to admit they have a mental health problem, and they can often lead on to various forms of exclusion or discrimination – either within social circles or within the workplace. What is mental health stigma?: Mental health stigma can be divided into two distinct types: social stigma is characterized by prejudicial attitudes and discriminating behavior directed towards individuals with mental health problems as a result of the psychiatric label they have been given. In contrast, perceived stigma or self-stigma is the internalizing by the mental health sufferer of their perceptions of discrimination (Link, Cullen, Struening & Shrout, 1989), and perceived stigma can significantly affect feelings of shame and lead to poorer treatment outcomes (Perlick, Rosenheck, Clarkin, Sirey et al., 2001). — Psychology Today August 2013

If you or a loved one is suffering from mental health issues, there are many resources available to you. Here are a few:

Newport County Community Mental Health Center provides trauma informed evidence-based services to children, adolescents, families, and adults who are experiencing problems with mental illness, substance abuse or stress in their lives that would benefit from counseling and other behavioral health services and supports. — 127 Johnny Cake Hill Road Middletown, RI 02842
www.nccmhc.org

NAMI, National Alliance of Mental Illness is the nation's largest grassroots mental health organization dedicated to building better lives for the millions of Americans affected by mental illness. www.nami.org
Mental Health Association of Rhode Island, The mission of the Mental Health Association of

Rhode Island is to promote mental health, prevent mental illness, and to improve the system of care for mental health through advocacy, education, service, and the dissemination of research. www.mhari.org

The Health & Wellness Committee is available to assist you in any of your health & wellness needs and we would be happy to point you in the right direction.

great opportunities throughout the region.

<http://www.uccnecamps.org/>.

If you decide to send your child/youth please let me know. It would be awesome if we can start a new tradition of our children and youth attending UCC Summer camps. I have heard many testimonials of how great of an influence camp can have on a child and youth's faith!

For 2016, The Rhode Island site, Irons Homestead is offering Church Camp. In place of the traditional - send your children off to camp - they invite us to bring our children to camp. Think overnight Vacation Bible School. If your family might be interested in attending with a group from our church, please let Heather know, so we can gauge interest. Dear United Congregational Church Members,

The recent food drive donations were way beyond our expectations. To see our stock room filled with such a variety and amount of groceries left our volunteers in awe! At present we have approximately 20 plus families who visit our food bank regularly. Each is able to take 1 or 2 bags of groceries per week. That's a LOT of food. But with the generosity of our community we are able to meet this challenge. Thanks to all who participated in this drive.

Gratefully,
